

HENTY LUTHERAN PARISH

Fourth Sunday after

Pentecost

28th June 2020 #25

Services:	Pleasant Hills 8:30am Culcairn - 10:30am
------------------	---

Matthew 10:40-42: This reading contains the final words of Jesus to the twelve upon sending them out to the surrounding towns. It can be seen that these words can be applied also more generally to the continuing work of the church. When a representative of Christ proclaims his word, it is as though the Lord himself is being received. A 'prophet' here describes someone who proclaims the gospel. A 'righteous person' is someone who sincerely demonstrates faith by the manner of life. 'These little ones' are people who are lightly thought of, often unnoticed. The reward so clearly promised for even slight deeds of love is a reward granted by God's grace and not deserved by personal merit.

1) Message from LCA IT On 10 June the LCA IT Department shut down our systems in order to remedy a serious online security breach. Anyone with an lca.org.au email address was not able to login to the LCA portal or access their email account. Our network is now secure and access to most individual users has been restored. From Monday 22 June congregation and agency emails will be restored. We are doing our best to restore access to all users as quickly as possible.
